

Activity 3 – ANIMAL CATEGORIES

Section B

INVERTEBRATES:

- I don't have a backbone
- Some of this group have no legs
- We are born from eggs
- Some of us change as we go through a life cycle
- There are more types of this group than any other
- Some of us have more than four legs

FISH:

- We have backbones.
- We breathe using gills.
- We have no legs or arms.
- We have fins
- We live in water all the time
- We lay soft eggs in water

AMPHIBIANS:

- We have backbones
- We are cold blooded.
- We can live in water and on land.
- We lay soft eggs in water.

MAMMALS:

- We drink milk from our mothers when we are babies.
- We are warm blooded.
- We have backbones
- We have hair or fur on our body.
- We breathe in air.
- We are born live from our mothers

BIRDS:

- We are warm blooded.
- We have backbones
- We have beaks
- We have lightweight bones.
- We have feathers.
- We are born out of hard shelled eggs.

PHOTOCOPY SHEET